

The Walberswick website was created in 2009 and continues to run smoothly with its three editors - Andrew Lewis, Claire Whittenbury and myself, Kay Ungless together with ten sub-editors who look after their own pages. Launched in 2009, it continues to expand and keep up with events in Walberswick. Nothing has been removed except for items required by the Data Protection Act.

You will find everything you need to know about

- The Parish Council, all Planning applications together with the reports from PAG, the History of Walberswick and the Common Lands Charity.
- Here is where you book the Heritage Hut, the Village Hall and the Communal beach hut.
- You can find every past copy of the History Group's newsletters and the Village News.
- There are many links making it easy to find when the ferry is running, when the mobile library calls, which bin to put out this week, and the latest from WALL
- We publish other items of village news when requested, and
- When families wish, we are able to publish full obituaries of their loved ones.

However, we remain a strictly non-commercial site so you will not find a picture hanger or a seamstress. We welcome your suggestions on what might also be included, and your criticisms when links don't work! Our pages are all but infinite.

If anyone would like to join our team, we're looking for someone to be in charge of the Calendar and keep it up to date. It's not an arduous task, except Walberswick is very busy!
